

1. What is the difference between a thread and a coroutine?
2. What makes a fork-join construct different from a parallel do loop?
3. Explain the difference between mutual exclusion and condition synchronization. Which of these would you consider a barrier an instance of?
4. What is the principle difference between the shared memory and message passing programming models?